MONBULL PARK

Facing El Retiro Park, on the fifth floor of a magnificent building dating from 1911, we find the kitchen with the best views in Madrid.

One of the highlights of this mansion is its semi-circular floor plan, which opens out onto the park through seven large windows that flood the space with light.

It has been refurbished down to the smallest detail, contains an upscale kitchen designed by Pininfarina and is fully equipped with top brand appliances and kitchenware.
